

Inside Sales Management

Are you a senior salesperson who has leadership experience? Now is the time to join VertMarkets for this exciting sales career.

After showing your proficiency in our sales program, your drive and initiative will determine your advancement into a management or other leadership role. As a sales manager, you will be responsible for the professional growth and development of four to six inside sales professionals. You will coach and mentor your team as you assist them in their professional development by modeling successful sales and account management skills.

The ideal candidate must have a successful track record in hard, business-to-business sales and prior leadership experience. A minimum of 5 years of experience is required.

We offer a generous base salary plus bonuses. Our premium benefits package includes:

- 13 company-paid holidays
- 16 –21 paid vacation/personal days during your first year
- Medical/dental/vision coverage for you and your immediate family
- Excellent training programs
- 401(k) with 100% company match up to 6%
- Life Insurance
- Short- and Long-term disability insurance

Enjoy the advancement you deserve! Apply today.
